

ResBird Representing TWA: Modernizing Travel Distribution

Since 2006, we’ve been empowering airlines and online travel platforms by delivering cutting-edge e-commerce solutions tailored to their needs. Our expertise spans a wide range of services designed for airlines to enhance the travel experience, reduce costs and drive revenue.

- Advanced Internet Booking Engines (B2C) supporting modern airline retailing
- Streamlined Airline APIs and B2B solutions to optimize retail and agency distribution channels
- Mobile retailing reimagined—delivering a seamless app-like experience without the need for an app
- Secure and efficient payment orchestration systems for hassle-free transactions
- Online check-in and ancillary services for greater convenience and a smoother passenger experience
- Dynamic packaging options that combine hotels and other travel services into personalized, flexible bundles to boost revenue
- IATA-certified NDC solutions for enhanced connectivity and next-generation retailing
- Comprehensive customer management systems designed to strengthen engagement and loyalty
